VOTER FREEDOM IS HERE TO STAY

No on 2 celebrates defense of open primary system

[Anchorage, AK] — For the second time in four years, Alaskans have decided in favor of elections that empower every voter.

That make candidates compete for every vote.

That allow Alaskans to vote for the best candidate, regardless of their party.

That ultimately give Alaskans every chance to choose representatives that put people before politics and make Alaska a place our kids will be proud to call home.

No on 2 Executive Director Juli Lucky and Campaign Chair Lesil McGuire released the following joint statement:

"We are thrilled that Alaskans from all over the state with diverse views and different backgrounds came together to preserve the system that empowers voters to elect representatives that will put Alaska first.

We want to thank everyone who worked to protect these hard-won, voter-approved reforms - from the volunteers and organizations who spent countless hours having conversations in our communities to every single Alaskan who voted to protect our freedom to vote for any candidate in any election, regardless of party.

Once again, voters made their voices heard and, once again, voters approved open primaries and ranked choice voting, a system that honors Alaskans' independence and rewards elected leaders who work together to address the challenges that face our state.

This is truly a win by Alaskans, for Alaskans, which will benefit our state for generations to come."
